Opis produktu

The soft and sensitive skin of women - particularly in the intimate area - requires special attention. pjur Woman was developed specially for women - with their feeling of wellbeing and their ability to feel with all the senses in mind: a lubricant and massage fluid with an extremely long lubricant effect that leaves a soft, silky skin feeling. If the moisture balance in the intimate area should be upset because of stress, after giving birth or during menopause, pjur Woman will restore sexual wellbeing again. This formula is completely devoid of perfumes and preservatives.
